MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Historical Staff

SUBJECT : Request for Material from Executive Registry

25X1A2g

1. In response to a request from the Chairman of the CS Historical Board, the CIA/HS Documents Officer has conducted a survey of the availability of [REDACTED] correspondence for the use of CS historical writers.

25X1A2g

2. The area divisions report the location and extent of [REDACTED] letters as follows: 25X1A2g

AF - "Nearly complete" set of [REDACTED] letters in AF/Registry and available to AF/HO.

NE - Complete set exists but is dispersed in NE/Registry, NE/HO, and NE Retirement at Records Center.

WH - Partial set with WH/HO. (See paragraph 5 below) 25X1A2g

FE - [REDACTED] material decentralized to FE Desks. Most retired to Records Center as FE Retirements. Some may have been destroyed. 25X1A2g

SB-SR - No [REDACTED] material located in this division. Apparently not in the [REDACTED] channel. 25X1A2g

25X1A2g

EUR (EE-WE) - No [REDACTED] material in office of Chief/EUR. None in branches. No record of [REDACTED] Retirements. (See paragraph 5 below).

3. The DDP/Registry is not an office of record for [REDACTED] material.

25X1A2g
4. Although the Executive Registry has not been an office of record for [REDACTED] material for several years the Chief, ER does have a retirement of [REDACTED] letters that represents material from the several divisions. (From our records these are probably RC Job 58-475 and RC Job 59-446).

25X1A2g

25X1A2g
5. It is requested that Executive Registry be asked to transfer custody of this [REDACTED] material to the CIA/HS Documents Officer in order that it may be made available to the appropriate area divisions.
